The lessons will held from Thursday to Sunday

Admission criteria

Admission will be for the Opera Singers that have passed the admission exam.

For all foreign students we ask a basic knowledge of the Italian language and/or the English language.

The Examining Commission, in its unquestionable judgment, can ask the candidates to perform all or part of the exam program presented. The results of the admission exam will be notified to the candidate at the end of the audition.

The judgement expressed by the Commission is final and without appeal.

There will be allowed a number of auditor only students. At the end of the course and in the final lessons for those auditor students who wish to, they can then audition for the Professors.

Length of the Course

The course will last 8 months, from October 2017 to May 2018.

A more detailed lesson timetable will be announced only when we will have the final list of students taking part.

The lessons will be held in the Auditorium E. Morricone and in other areas of the Faculty of Literature and Philosophy of the "Tor Vergata" Rome University.

The course will conclude with a theatrical musical production chosen and based on the possibilities of the participants and a concert: both will be performed together with the Roma Sinfonietta Orchestra in Rome in June 2018.

The final performance, where all of the students will take part, will be considered as a final exam.

Credits

The University will give to the students, taking the full course, a certificate of participation and n. 30 Crediti Formativi Universitari (CFU). These credits will be automatically useable in the European countries that are part of the Declaration of Bologna – ECTS (European Credit Transfer System)

They are divided up as follows:

Vocal Technique applied to a repertoire: 10 credits

Scenic art and Italian diction: 8 credits

Musical drama: 3 credits

History of Opera: 3 credits

Language and Italian Literature applied to entertainment: 3 credits

Study of musical Scores: 3 credits

For those students who wish to improve their Italian, they can participate in a twice weekly course of Italian for foreigners.

All participants taking the course can also follow other university and academic courses at the same time.
